

Bible Study 4

In The Beginning...

Genesis 6-9

Read Genesis 6:5-17.

1. What is your initial reaction to the judgment of God as shown in the Flood?
2. How is this tempered by the information in Gen 6:5-13? What are we meant to understand from these verses?
3. Although this passage speaks a great deal about God's judgment, what else do we learn of Him from this text?
4. What is the extent of the Covenant made with Noah in Gen 9:11-17 and what are its conditions?

5. What was commendable about Noah? [see also Heb 11:7]

Lessons for those of subsequent millenia ---

6. The flood provides an important lesson for the future. Jesus referred to it in Mt 24:37-39. What is the lesson?

7. On what basis do we escape judgement?

Pray

- thanking God that he is a just and righteous God
- that he has saved us through Jesus
- pray that more will see the character of God and turn to Him in repentance
